

FEEDBACK & FEEDFORWARD POLICY FOR UNDERGRADUATE AND POSTGRADUATE STUDENTS

1. The University of Law has been informed by the Office for Students Sector-Recognized Standards and the General Ongoing Conditions of Registration and has regard to the UK Quality Code for Higher Education. These definitive reference points for all English higher education institutions set out how academic standards are established and maintained and how excellence in the quality of learning opportunities is assured.

The University of Law provides a suite of policies designed to safeguard the academic standards of The University of Law and to assure the quality of learning opportunities offered; this policy should therefore be read in conjunction with other relevant policies within the code.

Introduction

2. This policy covers programmes, modules, micro-credentials provided by the University of Law (the University) which are assessed by formative and summative assessment. The terms 'programme' and 'module' denote respectively the whole, or a part, of the programme of study.

3. The University is committed to providing timely and appropriate feedback to students on their academic progress and achievement, thereby enabling students to reflect on their progress. Feedforward is also provided to assist students in planning their academic and
